DOCTOR CHARLIE SNARK WRITES

Greetings, loyal readers!

Welcome once again from your MAESTRO OF MIRTH! As usual, we have received mighty bundles of TITTERSOME jokes – and as usual I have not understood any of them! But Mike tells me that they are more than usually diverting, so a thousand thanks for sending them! As you know, we award fascinating PRIZES for the WORST jokes received every issue. By the way, I heard a really FASCINATING CONUNDRUM the other day. It went like this, if I remember correctly:

Q: Where do you find the Greater Dwarf Sloth?

A: Depends where you left it!

(What a terrible joke! signed MIKE).

Anyway, I can't sit here tickling your ribs all day. But one thing, before I pop off to Jellyville Library for a bit more research into the meaning of Jokes. I am considering taking on an Assistant. Please write me an hilarious letter, explaining exactly why you think you are suitable for this job!

NOBODY SERIOUS NEED APPLY!

And keep on sending in the Jokes!

Dear MIKE,
I would like to hear from anyone who would like to swap posters, badges and information on any pop stars/groups, I've got loads of fan clubs and dates of birthdays. My favourite pop stars are Madonna, Wham, Bangles and Aha! and, there are lots more. Please send S.A.E.

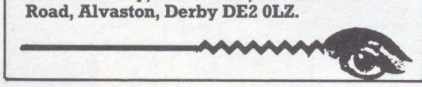
Mark Chorley, XL'er Club, 45 Falmouth Road, Alvaston, Derby DE2 0LZ.



MIKE's word of caution

I know you mean well but I think it is safer all round if we don't ask club members to send money. A newsletter which you think is worth 10p (because you know how hard you worked on it) may not have the same value to another club member.
So, please, ask only for SAE's and neither send money nor ask for any.

Dear MIKE,

Caroline Shorrock, 6 West Moss Lane, Ballam, Lytham St. Annes FY8 4NH.

It's May the 1st, Hip, Hip, Hooray,
I can get my TSB MIKE today.
Full of jokes, quiz's and stories too,
If it wasn't for MIKE I wouldn't know

I wish it could be monthly so the wait

The CHUFFIT

The whole day long the Chuffit keeps
On building lots of little heaps
Of coloured stones all round about
(It's always busy, there's no doubt).
But having built them, off it goes
And kicks them down – and no one knows
Just why the Chuffit wastes the day
In such a very funny way.

THE QUERK

The Querk won't work or do a thing,
It doesn't jump or climb or sing,
It doesn't moo or roar or buzz,
In fact I don't know what it does.

Helen Cribbs (10),

LIFE

Emerging from my chrysalis,
I feel the welcoming air greet me.
I see the colourful flowers smiling
As I try to open my wings.

I have been here a long time
Waiting for my wings to dry out,
I am very impatient.
I must go to investigate the world around me.

Now I'm just about to fly away
What will my future be like?
At last I'm really free
In a cool, gentle air,
Exploring life.

James Robinson (15),

Dear MIKE,
Please could you let me know if there is anyone who has animal posters or anything on animals for I am very keen on them. I have my own poster from when I joined the Jeans Scheme.
